

La Cour Saint Fulrad — The Soul of Alsace, the Charm of a Timeless Moment

In the heart of the Alsatian vineyards, surrounded by golden hills and half-timbered houses, La Cour Saint Fulrad invites you to experience an enchanted escape in Saint-Hippolyte, one of the jewels along the Alsace Wine Route.

Behind the warm walls of an 18th-century farmhouse, lovingly restored with passion, lies a place where time seems to stand still. Each stone, each piece of furniture, each object tells a story — the story of a preserved past and a rediscovered art of living.

Here, elegance and softness blend harmoniously in a refined décor filled with carefully chosen details and charming antiques: delicate linens, gentle fabrics, soft light... A true cocoon where one lingers to savour a coffee, listen to the silence, or simply dream.

Close to Alsace's treasures yet far from the crowds, La Cour Saint Fulrad is a haven of soul and emotion — a place to reconnect, recharge, and fall in love, embraced by the serenity of a traditional village and the charm of an exceptional home.
